Members, Exhibitors, and Friends of the Little Rhody Poultry Club have been generously donating to raffle for years. All items are appreciated but in an attempt to kick it up a notch, I have included a list of inexpensive and simple-to-buy items. Heck some of them you do not even have to purchase...

BAKED GOODS are always tops with us: Cookies, PIES, and cakes fill raffle baggies. Purchased food items are great too: coffee, wine, and cases of soft drinks are popular. Crafty things you made by your talented hands is fantastic... Knitted, crocheted, or quilted is a special gift to the club. Useful things keep us ticking in the coop. Items from the hardware store such as flashlights, packing tape, cable ties, scissors, and work gloves for example. Of course, Tractor Supply has tons of useful stuff: please consider getting an extra bag of scratch, mealworms, or red bulbs for the brooder for our raffle. Outdoor and garden items get lots of attention. These may include but not be limited to rain gauges, birdhouses, Dog toys cat toys, and the immensely popular SPRING PLANTS. The latter can be dug up from your beautiful yard or purchased at the garden center. Antique poultry items are a hoot. Stuff that you may not actually need anymore such as glass eggs, ceramic waterers, or old reading material is always popular. Things unused around the house can be good in the raffle...that new in-the-box veggie dehydrator, the gift card to the restaurant you're not going to go to. The leg bands that don't fit any bird you own. Someone will be happy to win them! Please consider one of the best gifts of all: EGGS & BIRDS! If you can and your willing; Fertile eggs and show quality stock is a big ticket generator.

Little Rhody's Kitchen and the raffle support the growth of the club. Cages and plywood are always in need of updating. Bringing in different judges from faraway places of course requires a plane ticket. Entries have always been low at Little Rhody. It's fair to say members are skilled in keeping costs low. So, if you can please help to generate ticket sales by donating something special to the show. Let's sell lots of tickets and keep the club growing!

First in Fund Raising is the AMAZING KITCHEN run by Shelly Fitzgerald !! Please be sure to say THANK YOU to Shelly for providing fantastic food at a great price to the club. I can't count how many years Shelly has been volunteering to the club: but I can tell you that her hard work supports the club more than any other fundraiser! And the best part? IT'S DELICIOUS TOO !!!
